

Author "Mitch" N. Mitchum

November 27, 1934 - July 7, 2023

Author Ned (Mitch) Mitchum, Miami. Author Mitchum, 88, most recently of Miami, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully Friday, July 7, 2023 at his home. Having grown up in South Carolina, he was the son of George and Suzie (Glenn) Mitchum. Mitch was predeceased by his wife, Shelby Mitchum and siblings George, Jr, Helen (Broadway), Henrietta (Glatz), Mary (Clay), and John Henry.

Mitch served in the US Navy and later became a master electrician and general foreman, leading many large projects across the country. Mitch was an avid collector of coins, cars, and guns, but enjoyed nothing more than good food and good conversation. He always had an incredibly entertaining story to tell.

Mitch is survived by his children Charles (Judy), Carol Jean Wilson, Ned (Jo Anne) and Kelley; grandchildren Kate Feo (Tony), Dan Mitchum, Crystal Wilson, Kelley Jacobo (Roberto), Shane Mitchum (Alyssa), Corey Mitchum (Katina Breault), Lucas Mitchum; eleven great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews and longtime friends.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, July 11 at 10am at First Free Will Baptist Church in Miami, OK.

The family request donations be made to the Wounded Warrior Project at Woundedwarriorproject.org.

“ I just saw this. My heart is so broken. I dated Mitch for several months when he was in Sidney , Nebraska. He kept in touch and always was a very caring kind man. I will never forget the good times we had and how broken hearted I was when he left. He treated people with compassion and always was good to me through the many years. Usually a nice phone call or text. God bless his family and friends. I will never ever forget him.
