“ I will forever remember Barb’s huge smile and contagious laugh! She was such a joyful person. I will always remember the summer visits that her family made to our farm. It was the highlight of our summer. She and her sisters were always so adventurous and wanted to explore everything! I still remember the birthday party that we had for one of our calves. We decorated the barn with homemade birthday decorations and served the calves fresh apples picked from the orchard. Those are wonderful memories that will forever be in my mind and heart! Love you Barb, see ya soon!

“ As sisters we shared so much. We were the best of family and the best of friends all the days of our lives and after. The strong, joyful and gentle love we felt for our sister, Barbie, and each other will always be a special one because we share the incredibly precious gift of being sisters. That is one of the best blessings this world has to offer. With love to my very wonderful sister who has traveled on and is now an angel with out Beautiful Savior.
Your sister, Ginny
