

Deborah Reagan

May 20, 1951 - July 1, 2025

Deborah Reagan, 74, passed away on July 1, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Born on May 20, 1951, in Chino, California, she lived a life marked by strength, conviction, and deep faith.

Deborah pursued studies in law enforcement and public relations during her college years, laying the foundation for a life of purpose and service. She later built a career as an insurance biller at Dr. Jourdan's dental office, where her diligence and attention to detail were valued by colleagues and patients alike for many years. Dr. Jourdan and his wife, Sherry, were dear to Deborah.

A devout Christian, Deborah was an active member of Cornerstone Church. Her faith was central to her life; she was known for sharing God's word with those around her and offering care and compassion rooted in her beliefs. Her presence at church was both steadfast and inspiring.

Outside of work and worship, Deborah found joy in the natural world. She had a passion for planting and gardening, often spending time outdoors nurturing the beauty around her. Her love for art and painting reflected her creative spirit and offered another outlet for self-expression.

Those who knew Deborah will remember her as strong-willed and opinionated—a woman who stood firm in her beliefs and carried herself with confidence. Though sometimes intimidating in presence, she cared deeply for others and remained true to herself throughout her life.

Deborah was preceded in death by her step-father, Ronald Steele.

shared a home with for the last 15 years and was also best friends; daughters: Rhonda Weger (Charles) of Las Vegas, NV, Laurie Bynum and Shannon Fields, both of Grove; grandchildren: Cayla, Tony Cody, Molly, Zach, Ryan and Bayliegh; great grandchildren: Kason, Legend, Major, Evangelina, Kamdyn, Oliver and Jackson.

Memorial services will be at 1pm Monday, August 25, 2025, at Cornerstone Church.

“ Never shy, always ready to try, knowing just what way to go, and just what needed to be done. She was always available to help however she could. You could count on her word as truth, and her ability to tell anyone who needed to hear it. She was my best friend of 50+ years. I miss her already, I will miss her forever. I only hope there comes a time in God's world where your friends from humanity get together again. Love you Ma, Laurie, Shannon, and all the rest of her family.

Unfortunately when I left California and moved back east Debbie and I were never able to get together again. But even so we texted, emailed and called each other often. I was friends with Debbie since we were in the Sheriffs dispatch in the 1980s. When in California we were together every day even if we weren't working. We called each other sisters. I miss you so much and always will until we meet again in heaven. I love you mama. Laurie, Rhonda, Shannon I am sending you hugs in this time of immense sorrow, along with the grandchildren and great grand children. Rest in peace my sister. I love you 🙏❤️

“ I will miss you and your words of wisdom, you were a strong woman that has raised strong women. You will be missed here on the earth side, but I know how much you loved the lord so I know exactly where you are. Till I see you again. RIP
