“ Eunice was "the fun aunt" always reassuring us that anything was possible and that we should always believe in ourselves. I will never forget hearing her sing gospel songs and she made the best peach butter I ever tasted.....and her children were always so much fun to be around. Made us wish they could have been around more....life moves on but her memory will always stay in my heart....stay strong....and cherish the good...it's what makes "bad stuff" seem unimportant....take care
