

Frances Wohlers

January 26, 1926 - December 22, 2015

Frances Magdeline Wohlers, age 89, of Derby, KS passed away on Tuesday, December 22, 2015. She was born on January 26, 1926 to Lilly and Robert Boteler in Nauvoo, AL. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, Frederick A. Wohlers, seven sisters and one brother. Frances is survived by four children: Elizabeth Pollard of Denver, CO; Pat Gordon of Derby, KS; Joel McGough of Grove, OK; and Cecil McGough of Lewisville, TX 75077 along with twelve grandchildren and twenty-five great-grandchildren.

Her joy in life was to help and to pray for others. She was very active in visiting the sick at nursing homes and hospitals. She had the privilege of being a Steven's Ministries advocate for those going through grief as part of the Methodist Church. She loved the Lord, and has a deep relationship with Him. She was a wonderful cook, never served a cold breakfast and was always quick to ask if "you had eaten yet" to anyone that came along. Her famous signature was "Take Peace" and "Love" with a cross under it. What a legacy she has left behind. Let us all Praise God for the faithfulness of his Servant Frances Magdeline Wohlers.

Funeral services will be held at 1pm Wednesday, December 30, 2015 at Nichols funeral chapel in Grove Ok. Interment at Hickory Grove Cemetery.
