“ Mom was a wonderful and loving person full of spice and sassiness that loved her family to the fullest. She sacrificed many things for her families needs before her own. She was and still is loved by us all, And although she is at peace with our dad and other family members she will be missed terribly.

Aunt Harriette sent me letters regularly while I was deployed to Iraq. That meant the world to me! She even went as far as sending a wonderful care package. She was so sweet and yes sassy, that's how she stayed young at heart. I miss her witty charm. God bless and keep you Aunt Harriette, love you!
