“ To my sweet sister,
I am much sad for the loss of Jim and sending my heartfelt condolences. I pray to God to bless you and family with much courage and love.
Though my heart grieves with you over the loss of Jim, I take comfort in knowing that he rests safely in the arms of God.
Sis, I found much comfort knowing that the holy spirit within each of us mourns with us. Just reminding myself that my holy spirit is grieving too helped in sustaining me in the days, months, and years ahead. You will feel and know that too.
My family and I will continue to keep you and family in our thoughts and prayers.
Love you and family,
Sherry

“ My dear Elgin family you are all in my prayers and I Love You All So Much!! Your one of the strongest families I have ever known in my life!! Keep Staying Strong!!
I will always remember Jimmy sitting at the kitchen table in a meeting and Linda serving everyone and Tara & I came busting through the garage door into the kitchen and we were like oopps sorry cause we were being loud. Everyone just laughed and were so friendly saying hello to us all and Linda showing us out and handing us the keys to her Corvette we were gone. So many memories since we were 15 yrs old. Please if you need anything just call I am here for all of you!! Much love to you all.

“ *For all those who woke this morning to the loneliness of bereavement –
the empty bed or chair,
an unaccustomed quietness,
a life now incomplete –
may they know your presence
in the stillness of the day,
and through the love of friends
who offer their condolence.
And in the darker moments
may they reach out to hold your hand and feel the warmth of the One who has already passed from death to life
to welcome others into God’s Kingdom*

“ To say that I’m lucky to be one of his grandchildren is an understatement. I’m very lucky and will always be. My fondest memory of my grandfather is when I would visit him from out of town and we would have our talks about life. Even as a kid he saw the potential in me before anyone else. My grandfather showed me to live life without compromise. Thank you for showing me how to walk with strength and purpose. My grandfather’s generosity, work ethic, humility and selflessness are all qualities that I admire for, strive for myself. His love for my grandmother was one for the books. Those two will always be the “honeymooners” in my eyes because it was apparent for all to see just how much they love each other. Their faithfulness and their love affection toward one another after all these years made a gentle but loud statement. This is a marriage god intends for rich or poorer, for better, for worse and till death do us part. As grandchildren we are so lucky to witness first hand their relationship. Grandpa, I will always miss you. I have so many wonderful memories to hang on to. Grandpa keep smiling and your love for our family we will all cherish, until we meet again.

Your grandson Brock
