I really wish I had known you better. I wish you hadn't of left me as a young child who still needed you. I know you had your reasons but I have a very vivid memory of running down the steps and yelling for you to come back with tears running down my cheeks. You just kept walking away and didn't look back. I'm sure you would have been a good mom had you just given yourself the chance. I have very few memories of you but I do remember that you would get me chocolate milk and chocolate donuts. I remember you picking me up off the living room floor as I was crawling to the bathroom because I saw a mouse and wanted to play with it. I remember you carrying my in the kitchen and my grandma was washing the dishes and I told her to move because there wasn't enough room to walk behind her. And then I remember seeing you again when I 16 years old and the hug you gave me. I'd of liked to had more memories of you.
