

Juanito "A.J." Tax-Serfass

March 3, 2006 - October 1, 2023

Juanito 'A.J.' Tax-Serfass, age 17, of Grove, Oklahoma, tragically lost his life in a drowning accident on Sunday, October 1, 2023. A.J. was born in Norfolk, Nebraska on March 3, 2006.

A.J. had recently moved to Grove from Monkey Island, Oklahoma. He was a junior in high school at Oklahoma Connections Academy.

He was accomplished in Tai Kwan Do and enjoyed self-defense classes. He had a collection of Marvel comics and delighted in a variety of video games and remote cars. A self-proclaimed Mama's boy, he was kind, funny and selfless, and never liked to be a disappointment in any way. Cooking was one of his specialties, and his favorite was spaghetti and meat balls. A.J. loved 'fixing stuff' and had recently moved to a recreational lake development where he assisted his dad in working on the recreational vehicles.

His memory will always be cherished by his parents, Mary and Adam Nelson, and his two sisters, Nataleigh and Angelicyah, and many extended family and friends.

A visitation for A.J. will be from 4-6pm Friday, October 6, and funeral services will be at 11am Saturday, October 7, 2023, both at Nichols Stephens Funeral Service.

“ Aj was a very great friend and had an amazing work ethic and view to life. Always made me laugh when I talked to him or he said a joke. Mj or May he called me, always liked that nickname over Mak like most people call me. "Like mak and cheese?" Was his thoughts over that name. Can't say I disagree.
Out of all the people in the school or outside world I've talked to, Aj was one to always say "hello how are you" to me before I even said hi that day. Always a great friend to everyone he met.
Youll be missed greatly by your friends and family. Your sisters are also so fun to talk to and I see you in them too. Watch over them. I'm sure they got great things in store for them too.
Miss you Aj. Fly high!

“ A.J was the type of guy that brightens everyone day and can make anyone laugh. He was super chill and fun to talk to. When i did online, we would have this group chat which has like 30 people in it, and we would constantly send chats back and forth accumulating over 1k webmail’s notifications until the principal had enough and put a stop to it. I remember In one of the webmail he wrote “meow meow”. It was so out of the blue that it caught me off guard and to this day, I kid you not, i would say meow meow under my breath for no odd reason.
That’s my little memory of A.J’s.

“ Although I only knew AJ for a few months as his US History teacher, it was such a privilege. He regularly attended lessons and made such positive contributions to our discussions. He was kind and funny. Thank you for sharing him with us, he was a wonderful young man whom I am thankful to have known.

“ AJ, Nataleigh and Angelicyah really enjoyed going to their Tai-Kwondo classes while we were in Galveston last winter. They all tested for and received their white belts that night. They all were so excited to get their white belts! This was one thing AJ enjoyed doing because he was able to do this with his sisters as bonding time.

“ This was one of AjJ's golfcart adventures! We were given some leftover beef stew we were able to heat up for lunch that day this was taken. We asked hi to take the Golfcart up to the office and see if there were any bowls of any sort up there and brig some home. The girls were starting to get hungry and looked around the house for AJ. No AJ to be found. He had been gone so long we forgot what he was supposed to be doing, until he came back home walking absolutely covered in mud. Adam asked him what the heck he was doing and why on Earth did he have mud on him. He sighed goes “Oof! It's stuck.” At the time we couldn't see it was stuck...well sunk in the mud. He pointed up the road and he said it's up there Dad I was trying to see if there were any bowls up there like you said to do. We ended up having to get that towed out of the rut it sunk into, and this was taken immediately after it got towed out of the mud. He gained a new nickname that day. I miss you Crash. - Mama

“ This was the last job AJ was able to help Adam with here at the rv park. I wish I had taken more pictures of him working on that job looking back now! I knew there was something special about him, but I couldn't believe I was able to capture that on Saturday. He was a great helper and a very humble and generous little man! AJ I love and miss you dearly! -💙 Mom

“ AJ was such a kind-hearted person who was very beloved by most. He always enjoyed making everyone smile- especially if it meant it was with Mom. He was a momma's boy and never failed to show it. When he wasn't busy with his schoolwork, he would always be quick to help Dad with several jobs until they were either finished or at a stopping point. He was very motivated and devoted to working hard and doing what was right. He never liked to disappoint anyone. He was always quick to try and help anyone in need when needed. AJ will always be an amazing brother and friend to others, and he will be greatly missed by lots!!

Yes. He backed up into our car door and also got the golfcart stuck in the mud next to the new rv spots closer to the shop. AJ always kept everyone on their toes, especially us! I reminded him to go on the grass path around the equipment until there was some rock put in place on the road. All AJ said was "Oof! Ok Mom geez!" -Mary “ Adam and Mary, AJ was a very special young man! I will never forget him coming to Honey Creek and laughing so hard at "Jan". I will always remember him waving and saying "hello" to me. I know how hard this is and believe me, I am right there with you all. I have been totally emotional the last few days. May he rest in peace and fly high as he can, Love you both, Prayers and hugs coming your way!

“ A.J. is the kindest person I've ever met, always giving and loving. He had a fantastic sense of humor that kept us kids laughing late into the night. He showed compassion and respect to everyone he came across and never left without a smile. He is the best big brother I could ever ask for and I hope he knows how much he is loved. He cared so deeply for everyone he knew. He is a true angel, and I hope he rests easy in heaven.

Mary Tax - October 04, 2023 at 01:49 PM

“Thank you to all of you for commenting about our sweet son, AJ. We are delighted to read and learn of the lives he impacted. AJ was definitely a mommas boy but he wanted to be like me more than I ever realized. He had a love for repairing RV's and helping me in any way he could. He was the kind of son that would bring us coffee in the morning and have breakfast made just to make our lives easier. He was always thinking of others way ahead of his own needs. AJ was a model of selfless that we all can learn from. He was so independent and often figuring out anything he could on his own. He didn't like asking for help. I can only strive to be the man that our son was. Learning of AJ's passing, a young boy that AJ once played with approached his mother Mary, gave her a hug, smiled at her and rubbed her shoulder and arm. He then said, "you don't have to worry about your son. You don't have to wonder where he's at. He's safe. He's home. He's with Jesus and all of the other Angels. He was needed in Heaven. He was a very special Angel that was called home to Heaven. Gods peace be with you always! All of the Angels are surrounding you and your family protecting all of you! You can breathe, rest and have peace knowing he's no longer suffering or in pain. He is where he belongs at home in Heaven. I know you don't understand this and why it happened. But just know he's safe and home with Jesus and the Angel Army and they will be with you everywhere you go."

“ Although I only knew A.J. for a few months as his English 11 teacher this semester, he was a student that stood out in all the best ways! A.J. was faithful to come to the group LiveLessons and had a great rapport with all of the other students. He was polite, respectful, funny, and always ready with a kind word, humorous comment, or helpful suggestion! I'm grateful I had the privilege of having him in my class, and I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Through only small interactions with AJ over tips using certain software it became obvious quick that he was a very passionate respectful guy. He wasn't shy or dry, he had a very positive vibe that followed him. I was in a few live lessons with him and his sister, and they both had the same caring and respectful attitude towards what they were doing. Many times, my mom would mention AJ about how sweet and determined he was, and how he would be participating in the Purple Heart Schools group. It is not very common to see someone with that much determination and will to help others beyond what is expected. Fly high AJ - Hayden Vandenberghe

“ *AJ was such a caring, compassionate young man. He was always friendly to those he met. He was respectful and never left without a kind acknowledgement before he said goodbye. I would always think he stayed after to ask a question, but he truly wanted to show others that they mattered by taking the time to tell them he hoped they had a good day. He and his sister have impacted my life in the most positive ways. The impression they left on all those they spent time with is a testament to their family and how they were brought up in their home. He was a joy to spend time with and help along his high school journey. My life will be forever changed for the better having known him. Thank you for sharing him with me. I will miss him deeply.
