

Judy K. Cartwright

September 15, 1960 - August 19, 2018

Judy Kay (Nuckolls) Cartwright, age 57, of Grove passed away on Sunday, August 19, 2018 at her home.

Judy was born in Rockford, Illinois on September 15, 1960 to Billy Nuckolls and Catherine (Pipkin) Nuckolls. As a child, her family moved to Grove, where she grew up and attended school. Judy was a nail technician at Class Act Salon for many years.

Judy loved the social life, and had a sweet but stern nature. She was a vibrant, outspoken but caring individual with many friends and family with whom she loved spending time.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Survivors include her previous husband, Chris Cartwright of Grove; daughters, Jenni Proctor of Verdigris, OK and Kelli Proctor of Grove; son, Brian Proctor of Grove. She had three grandchildren whom she adored; Kinsley, Caden and Julia. Judy is also survived by three sisters; Cathy Turner of King George, Virginia, Cindy Nuckolls of Tahlequah and Nina Moman of Grove, and one brother Keith Nuckolls of Grove.

A visitation for family & friends will be from 6-8pm Thursday, August 23. Funeral services will be at 11am Friday, August 24, 2018, both at Nichols Funeral Chapel. Burial at Olympus Cemetery.

Donations may be made to the Grove Humane Society in her name.

“ There is not enough space on this tribute wall to share all of the fun memories I have had with Judy over the countless years I have been blessed to call her my friend. Judy, you may be gone but you will be forever in our hearts my beautiful friend. -Colleen (Husong) Williams
