“ It's that time of year, Grandma. I'm still clean and sober. I am working with others to help them obtain the same and find their purpose. I have a 2 year old son now that I know you would just adore. I found God and was baptized this year. I miss you dearly. I hope you're looking down and proud. I love you, Grandma.

“ Just missing you today Grandma. Wished you were here to meet my son and see the man I am becoming. I'm clean and sober now. I have a great job and home. Holidays are not the same anymore. I hope to soon start my own family traditions to remove the heavy damper on my heart that I've held onto since 2011. I'll always have you in my heart and memories every holiday and for the next waking years if my life on Earth. I miss you so much and have been missing you a lot lately. I love you. Merry Christmas in heaven.

“ My dearest mother, what to say.. you were my friend, my only friend, you taught me so much growing up, i wish you hadn't sacraficed so much for us boys and enjoyed your life more, i so miss the sound of your screen door opening every morning to let Suzie out, i begin to prepare dinner for two as always then i remember your not there :( i get the mail and find myself heading to your house with it then remember your not there.. This is so hard, you were my security, my everything, you cared when you found out i was sick when my own kids didn't come around or care.. Who will i turn to now, who will i talk to now, who will i cook for now. I could only count on one person all my life and now your gone to, i feel so alone! My life will never be the same, i love you Mom, till we meet again, please watch over us and bring this family together again, i know that was your only wish in the world, for family to get along,.... I love you Billy ^ >:< ^ :(
P.S. Suzie will live with me, we miss you so much!

“ Grandma, you were so hard on me. She was great. Could be tough on us grand kids sometimes but she sure did love us a lot. We used to have a sleep over every year at her house about a week before we went back to school. I got my love of chocolate from her for sure. Grandma and I only drank hiland chocolate millk too.

“ We lived right next door to grandma my whole life. I spent so many weekends with her on the couch watching lifetime movies and eating popcorn. I remember taking her dinner over every night and as soon as I'd open the door she would turn around from her computer and say, "mmmm what smells so good." She always made Christmas so special for all of us. I love you so much grandma. I'll miss you always. My heart just breaks. You're in my heart and on my mind. Love, Jenn
