

Kathryn "Candy" C. Bixler

August 27, 1946 - February 20, 2025

Kathryn C. Bixler, age 78, passed away on Thursday, February 20, 2025, in Grove, Oklahoma.

Kathryn was born on August 27, 1946, to James and Eleanore (Osiwala) Scott. She grew up in Royal Oak, Michigan, and graduated in 1964. She went on to attend Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College where she obtained an associates degree in business. In 1969, she married Paul Bixler, and in 1995, they moved to Grove from Alva, Oklahoma.

She worked as a legal secretary for Erin Lanway until her retirement in 2018. Kathryn was a woman of Catholic faith and an active member of the Grand Lake Audubon Society. She found great joy in birdwatching, walking her pets, and reading. In her younger years, she also enjoyed golfing and spending time on the lake.

She is preceded in death by her parents and husband, Paul Bixler.

Kathryn's cremains will be interred at St Elizabeth Catholic Church at a later date.
