

Keith Wayne Ferguson

January 29, 1974 - September 8, 2024

Keith Wayne Ferguson, known to those close to him as 'Redwood' for his towering stature and vibrant red hair, passed away tragically on September 8, 2024, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, at the age of 50. Born on January 29, 1974, in Norman, Oklahoma, to Melvin and Joyce (Rhodes) Ferguson, Keith grew into a robust and outspoken man, deeply true to his beliefs, yet always considerate and kind.

Keith's early life was marked by challenges, but he worked diligently to turn his life around. He completed his GED and pursued further education at Vatterott College, where he earned his auto mechanic's license. His career as an auto mechanic saw him working at various establishments, most notably at Everybody Drives in Miami, Oklahoma, where he was highly valued for his expertise.

Outside of his professional life, Keith was passionate about motorcycles and cars, not just fixing them but also riding and racing them. His love for his Harley was well-known among his friends and family. He also attended services at various churches, including Cornerstone of Grove and Grace Fellowship in Miami, enriching his Christian faith.

Keith is survived by his long-time girlfriend, Madeline Drumright of Miami, Oklahoma; his brother, Terry (Kimmie) Ferguson of Eufaula, Oklahoma; and his good friends, Lee and Jennifer Cartwright, along with a host of other friends and acquaintances. He was preceded in death by his parents, Melvin and Joyce Ferguson.

Nichols-Stephens Funeral & Cremation Services in Grove, Oklahoma, is assisting the family during this time. Keith's life, marked by resilience and a deep capacity for kindness, leaves a lasting legacy among all who knew him.

“ There is to many memories to share but my favorite one will always be him coming to our house every day with a 25 cent piece of bubble gum for the girls. He NEVER forgot to stop at otter stop to grab them on his way. He is also the one to teach my girls their prayers at night before bed. We love you Kieth and we will miss you so much. Just know you left a mark on our hearts!!!
