Kim's hobbies included writing, quilting and crafting, but her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren and family. Her love and care extended beyond her immediate family, touching all those around her with her warmth and generosity.

“ We spent a lot of time together especially here lately in the months before she passed, would go to town and get dq and talk and get back to the house and work on whatever little project she had in mind that week. I love her so much and she'll be deeply missed
