“ She was my sister so I have many memories. She was a good person. When we were about 14 she was having trouble with a girl at school so I decided to show her how to fight/ hit not thinking I told her to swing at me. Well she almost knocked me out I forgot she was left handed. One summer when we were 16 she and I went to Corpus Christi Tx. On our way we passed a convey of army trucks she waved at them as we passed them we stopped to get a soda and chips and 7/8 army trucks stopped also by the time I got her out of there she must have had 20/25 army guys giving her their address. I don't think she stopped smiling for days. She had a blast. Sorry for so many lost years. Love you.
