“ Margaret was a wonderful person. She was Mother to my two friends since childhood. She was always sweet to me growing up. One fond memory of her was she could fry the best fried chicken. I spent alot of time at their house and ate there numerous times. It was like my second home. I have nothing but good memories of Margaret. May she rest in peace. And may GOD comfort her husband Howard and her sons and wives,Larry and Deann Mathia and Danny and Loretta Mathia and all of her grandchildren. I am praying for you all. I hope to see Margaret again in heaven.
