

Maxine Graham Smith

May 20, 1935 - August 29, 2022

Maxine Graham Smith (Wombles) was born May 20, 1935 to Emma (Chaney) and Chester Wombles of Acorn, Kentucky.

Max went to her heavenly home on Monday, August 29th at Grove Nursing Center and will be missed greatly by her sons, daughter and the rest of her family.

Max loved having family gatherings at the lake and was always planning for the next. She was a great cook and was always feeding her family and friends with food as well as love. She was an old school kind of girl, in that if you can't do anything else, feed them.

Her life was full of love, hope and faith. Through her husband Gene Graham (and the Air Force) she was able to travel the world, quite a contrast from her southeastern Kentucky beginning. She could put you in your place in several languages when needed! She always carried that Kentucky Spirit with her, never forgetting her roots. Ornerly as a Kentucky Wildcat! She was an avid reader of both books and people.

She is preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Velma Nichols, Christeen Chriswell, and Alta Wombles; and husbands, Gene Graham and Devon Smith.

She is survived by her three children, Lorna of Grove, Oklahoma, Robert (Myra) of Marshfield, Missouri, and Dennis (Terrie) of Grove, Oklahoma along with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Bye Mom, Love You and Miss You ALREADY!
