

Patricia "Pat" A. George

November 3, 1937 - November 1, 2025

Patricia A. George, affectionately known as Pat, passed away peacefully on November 1, 2025, at the age of 87 in Joplin, Missouri. Born on November 3, 1937, in Oelwin, Iowa, Pat's life journey was marked by her resilience, a contagious smile, and an unwavering work ethic.

Pat graduated from Sumner High School in Sumner, Iowa, and shortly thereafter, in 1955, she married Arlan Nuss. Together, they operated Nuss Service Station in Sumner, Iowa, until relocating to Tulsa, Oklahoma, in 1972. In Tulsa, Pat embarked on a fulfilling career that included positions at St. John's Hospital and Helmerich & Payne. After her divorce, she married Ewell Acree and moved to Bernice, Oklahoma, where they managed the Cherokee Trading Post convenience store until Ewell's passing in 1989. Pat found love again and married Harold D. George; they settled in the Hickory Grove area until his death in 1999.

Retirement didn't slow Pat down. She continued to work part-time at H & R Block until just a few months before she passed. She was the beloved voice of H & R Block for 22 years.

Pat was involved in activities at Trinity Baptist Church and square dancing. Known for her happy demeanor and sometimes ornery nature, Pat was also an extreme animal lover, cherishing her many pets and the tranquility of country living.

Pat is preceded in death by her parents, Harry and Goldie Johnson, and 3 husbands.

Left to cherish her memory, her chosen family, Mike and Sue Fietz, Sharon Lamb and Shane Lasley, and her furry companions, Gracie, Sparky, Boomer, Circe, Suzy Q and Gray kitty.

Visitation for Pat will be from 5pm-7pm Thursday, November 6, 2025, at Nichols-Stephens Funeral Service. Graveside services will be at 10am Friday, November 7, 2025 at Hickory Grove Cemetery.

Contributions in memory of Pat can be made to the 2nd Chance Pet Rescue, an organization close to her heart, reflecting her love for animals.
