

Patricia "Pat" Kay Sater

February 7, 1951 - May 25, 2026

Patricia Kay Sater, known affectionately as Pat, passed away on May 25, 2026, in Grove, Oklahoma.

Born in Battle Creek, Michigan, to Charles and Franzis (Gibson) Chryst, Pat grew up in a large family with 5 brothers and sisters. She lived in Colorado and Arizona before eventually putting down roots in Grove.

Pat's life was marked by her quirky and eccentric personality, always driven by a boundless curiosity. She embraced a life filled with love and the joy in the little things. She spent many years helping her husband with his business and raising her own children, while also helping care for and raise the children of family and friends across multiple generations.

Her home was always filled with many pets and plants, which brought her immense joy. Her faith in God and hopeful spirit remained with her until her final days.

Pat leaves behind her loving husband, Glenn Sater; her children, Voisie James (Heath Hall) and Cassy Shoemaker (Steven), all of Grove, Oklahoma; her sister, Genn Chryst of San Francisco, California; stepchildren Jennifer Dueker of Bentonville, Arkansas, Chris Sater (Jennifer) of Casper, Wyoming, and Paul Sater of Augusta, Kansas. As well as 11 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and four siblings.

In keeping with her wishes, no services are planned at this time. Nichols-Stephens Funeral & Cremation Services in Grove, OK, is assisting the family during this time. Pat's life, marked by her unique spirit and love for her family, will be remembered fondly by all who knew her.
