“ Well Pat now you see. Death is a window nothing more. The energy left here from you is now only remembered. From where you are, know you are missed. Fly high Pat. No more worries.

“ I am so Sad to hear this.....Pat was a good friend of mine and he will be missed. One fond memory that I have is asking him if I could drive his jacked up Nova...he told me no several times , but I never stopped trying until one day he finally said ok IF you can start it on the first try then you can drive it...:he knew that I would fail, but allowed me to try it anyway! Love you always Pat RIP!!❤️
