I am saddened by the passing of my cousin, Ramona. I am even more saddened that I have allowed life to get in the way and have lost contact with a beautiful family.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Ramona and Jim hold a special place in my heart. Ramona would hem and iron clothes in early 1970's that's how my parents met her. One day Denise came home from school and said she would babysit me and she had sisters also. Ramona would watch me at her house during the day sometimes and we would make cookies and I would "help" with her gardening. Truly blessed to have known Ramona. Deepest condolences-Kelley Gray
