

Raymond L Sutton

December 18, 1954 - April 12, 2025

Raymond Lee Sutton, aged 70, passed away on April 12, 2025, in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Born on December 18, 1954, in Ada, Oklahoma, he was a son to the late Billie and Lillie Sutton.

Raymond had a multifaceted career that included roles as a tree trimmer, railroad track repair man, roofer, and mechanic. His work ethic and versatility in various trades were greatly admired by those who knew him. A veteran of the United States Army, Raymond served his country with dedication and honor, embodying the values instilled in him through his military association.

He was a man of faith who loved his Lord and Savior. Raymond's hobbies included tinkering with small engines and mechanical things, a testament to his ever-curious and inventive spirit. He also had a passion for drawing, which allowed him to express his artistic side in quiet solitude.

Known for his quiet, accommodating nature, Raymond was a loner who nevertheless made room in his heart for everyone.

He is survived by his siblings, Gayle Lutton (Joe) of Grove, OK, Tony Sutton (Cathy) of Bartlesville, OK, and Kimberly Story (Steve) of Eufaula, OK; and his aunt and caregiver, Marilyn Roe of Grove, OK
