

Ronna Jean Clark

December 15, 1945 - April 22, 2026

Ronna Jean Clark (LaGrange), age 80, passed away on April 22, 2026, in Commerce, Oklahoma. Born on December 15, 1945, in Chickasha, Oklahoma, Ronna lived a vibrant and loving life, touching the hearts of those around her.

Ronna graduated from Classen High School in Oklahoma City with the class of 1963. She had lived on Monkey Island since 1978 where she made many lasting friendships. Many may remember her for her years working as a bartender, first at Shangri-La, then Spats, and finally at the Armadillo Club where she was affectionately known as 'Ronna-the-bartending-pirahna'! She later had a fulfilling career working with Coldwell Banker Real Estate Group. Her warm and fun-loving personality made her a beloved figure both professionally and in her community.

Ronna was a member of Lake Center Baptist Church in Grove, Oklahoma, where she found spiritual solace and a community of faith that supported her throughout her life. Her hobbies later in life included watching TV, working on puzzles, and using the computer gaining knowledge and playing games, activities that brought her much joy and relaxation.

Ronna was preceded in death by her parents, Jack and Rena LaGrange; her first husband Raymond Revels and her late husband, Dan Clark; brother

Donald Clark, two sisters, Lavon Dyer and Lavanna Lyle, and great granddaughter Maveryck Alexandria Foster.

Left to cherish her memory, her daughter, Pam Nutting and son-in-law Rick of Commerce, Oklahoma; granddaughter Courtney Dawson, two grandsons Dakota Christie and David Nutting, two great grandchildren Drew and Motley Christie, as well as many extended family and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Nichols-Stephens Funeral & Cremation Services in Grove, Oklahoma, is assisting the family during this time. Ronna thoughtfully donated her body to science. Ronna's life will be celebrated and remembered for the love and joy she brought into the lives of those she knew. A Celebration of Life will be announced soon.
