“ My daughter Madison and my niece Breanna have known Sean their entire life. He was always stopping by when we lived in town. One day Sean and Kyle come walking up with left-handed golf clubs for Madison's 4 year old little brother. We still have them to give to Madison's children. Not many teenage boys would spend their hard earned money on a best friends little brother. He has been at every birthday party of Darius and Madison's son. In fact he is "Uncle Sean" to Davin. Our whole family's heart was won over by him many years ago and he will be missed so much. We have been praying for his family. There is no doubt he is in Heaven watching over the children who loved him so much. Leslee Heatley

“ He asked to borrow my little and I mean little, grey Nissan so him and 3 friends could go to Noel to a teenage dance place. I kept thinking Mom is going to kill me if she finds out. He says oh it will be ok. Of course he wants to drive. Barely fits. I show him where registration is and insurance is and it'd cleaned out, gased up and ready to go. And I'm lecturing him, and he says oh be quiet I know. You sound like mom. I said I'm just worried. He says just don't be, it's Sean. And that was supposed to make it better. Lol I warned him of the cops and how they are. And the seat belt, which did not fit. So I said pretend it doesn't when u go through there. So about 1 am I'm getting a call from Sean, Mr. It's Sean, don't worry, asking where's my paperwork and ins. He got pulled over and then got tickets. Great, I'm in trouble. So I get my car pull it all out and give to him and he has to tell mom. Cause he has court. Of course he got in trouble. Which in return, remember I'm an adult, got in trouble. Lol never loan Sean your car. Well not for that..
