

Shirley A. Trout

January 31, 1948 - February 14, 2022

Shirley A. Trout, age 74, of Grove, Oklahoma, passed into the arms of her Savior on Monday February 14, 2022. Shirley was born on January 31, 1948 in Pryor, Oklahoma to Ralph and Ruby (Sims) Trout.

She was a lifelong resident of the Grand Lake area and her love for cooking lead to her career in restaurant service. She was a compassionate lady who had a loving heart for anyone in need, providing meals and even a place to stay at times. She was a wonderful homemaker, but also enjoyed fishing and all the lake had to offer. She loved to write short stories and read romance novels.

Shirley was preceded in death by her parents, brother, Ralph Trout, Jr., sister Ruth Ann Renteria, daughter Tine Kaye Mahan-Hodkin, grandson Martin Lynn Robertson, great grandson William Lincoln Zrubek and her longtime love, Edsel Mitchell.

Left to cherish her memory, her daughter Carla Norris of Grove, Oklahoma, brother Earl Trout of Noel, Missouri, sister Faye Elmore or Stillwell, Oklahoma; grandchildren Shellanna and Kevin Gray of Arlington, Washington, Rayanna Robertson of Austin, Texas, Michael Mahan of Jay, Oklahoma, William Zrubek and Ashley Martin of Grove, Angela Christie of Grove, Jessica and Mike Miller of Goodman, Missouri, Daryl Smith, Caycee Smith and James Smith all of Grove, Oklahoma; and great grandchildren Allyanna, Konner, Aleah, Houston, Trinity, Urijah, Maxton, and Abree.

Family memorial services are planned at a later date.

“ You were always “Grandma” to me and helped shape the person I am today. You were always there to give your wisdom and love to anyone who needed it, with no judgments, no questions, just unconditional love. There are too few of angels here on Earth and we lost another with your passing. I love you Grandma and am so very thankful to have known you.
