“ I have a great deal of memories of Tamara Levine the most important one is of her not giving them a memory well yeah it's a memory I look back on because I was on the phone with her it was when I had to tell her over the phone that I had to fight for my daughter she made it clear that I was fighting to be a mom. She taught me what it was to be a mom when she herself was a teenager. We both live through so much but that doesn't define us what defines us is how we lived and oh man did she live she lived with the force of nature that she was blessed with and I think God that she is no longer in pain and she is with our sister painting that street half red and teaching our sister Marie about wow world of Warcraft. My thoughts prayers and love to all who were around her no matter what you are all family to me we are forever bonded.
