“ Taunis always checked on Mom, Wilma after Dad and Carolyn passed!! He would fix things for her, encourage her and just visit. When I had that first garage sale trying to downsize so she could move out here with me. He came back when it was over to help me haul off what didn't sell. My sister's senior picture fell out of a piece of furniture and he was so excited and asked if he could have it, he kept it up at his house. Dad always said he was a good customer always had money from working hard. I wish we could've heard some stories. Deb said that they had another event so they didn't open the four. I heard a couple in the parking lot. He will be missed.
