“ From our young years of double dating to his marriage to my beloved sister, to surprising me by getting a military leave to attend my wedding, to the birth of my children, Kristi and Tim, to him being there for their weddings, to the birth of Kristi's children, Rachel, and Hannah, birthdays, anniversaries, Christmases, graduations, fishing trips and stories, we have shared a lifetime of the greatest joys and deepest sorrows of life. Tony has always been the best brother-in-law and best uncle anyone could ask for and we loved him deeply, and he loved the girls as if they were his own.
