

Wanda Kay Sager-McGough

September 17, 1941 - July 9, 2015

Wanda Kay Sager-McGough, age 73, passed away on July 9, 2015 at her home surrounded by her family, a few weeks after suffering a stroke.

She was born on September 17, 1941 in Lamar, Mo to L.D. and Zeola (Ross) Sager. Wanda married the love of her life, Joel McGough, in June of 1970 in Stillwater, Ok, and from that union came 3 children.

To Wanda, life was a pure art form. She was a woman of many talents and passions, an accomplished artist, avid gardener, continuous learner and a "damn good cook". She faced adventure head on and traveled the world with her family.

Wanda is a charter member of G.G. Chapter P.E.O. and E.S.A. Sorority and graduated with a Bachelors Degree in Art Education from the University of Tulsa.

Teaching art was Wanda's joy and life's work and she devoted 35 years to instructing Art at: Tulsa Public School, a parents cooperative school (PCS) in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, at McDonald County School in Southwest City, Mo and Noel Public School in Noel, Mo and Colcord Public School in Colcord, Ok.

Wanda is preceded in death by her parents.

She will be missed by her loving family: husband, Joel McGough of Grove, Ok; children: Traci Owens and husband, Michael, of Broken Arrow, Ok, Joel McGough and wife, Sonya, of Chesapeake, VA and Bill Blu McGough of Tahlequah, Ok; brother: Ross Sager of Grove, Ok and many grandchildren.

A gathering of friends and family will be held from 2-5pm July 12, 2015 at the McGough home, for more info call Nichols Funeral Service at 918-786-6761.

“ A beautiful creature in every way. I was always in awe of the way aunt Wanda carried herself and the aura around her. My mother Beth Mcgough cherished Wanda and always, always spoke reverently of her. I see black wild manes in the wind and a high soaring eagle and a secret meadow of wildflowers when I think of this woman I called Aunt. Love and peace to all.
